

Sebastian Maccarini - graduated from the Conservatory of Udine. In 2007, he obtained a Master's Degree in Principal Piano at the Conservatory of Perugia. In 2004, he attended the Biennium of Advanced Training for piano accompanists at the "Hugo Wolf" School in Acquasparta and in 2005 he obtained his diploma, delving into the literature of Lieder from Mozart to Berg. In 2009, he obtained a Level II Degree in Music Didactics at the Conservatory of Perugia. He attended piano specialisation courses with Sergio Perticaroli, Bruno Canino, Jeffrey Swann and A. Stephenberg. He has performed in concerts in chamber ensembles and as a soloist. In 2011, he was a guest at the Golden Apricot Festival in Yerevan; in the same year, he was selected as pianist for the show "Il buffo dell'opera" conceived by Antonio Lubrano. He holds the chair of Principal Piano at the DIMA Academy and the Liceo Musicale in Arezzo. Since 2019, he has been Artistic Director of the Municipal School of Music of Monte San Savino (AR).