

Roberto Rossi - graduated in 2002 from the Conservatory of Cesena. In 2004, he obtained an international scholarship from Maestro Alberto Ponce, with whom he attended masters. Second Prize at the 'S. Benintende' Guitar Competition in Reggio Calabria in 2008 and First Prize at the International Competition 'Incontri Chitarristici del Mediterraneo' (2009). In 2010 he was Second Prize at the "Premio Città di Gubbio" National Guitar Competition and Third Prize at the "Riviera Etrusca" Competition in Piombino in 2011. Composer for solo guitar, chamber ensembles with several instruments and guitar orchestra. Some of his pieces such as 'Suite Manouche' are played by renowned masters such as Giorgio Albani and Antonio Fruscella. His teaching series are published by 'L'Empreinte Melodique' with which he regularly composes. Orchestral pieces are performed in public by Le Chitarre di CesAre Orchestra. He is a tenured guitar teacher at the Liceo Musicale 'Petrarca' in Arezzo. And master arranger and guitar teacher at the DIMA Academy in Arezzo.